

Yield Pt20

MARK 2:14

14. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

MATTHEW 4:18-22

18. And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19. And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20. And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21. And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22. And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

THE MIGHTY CONQUEROR [58-0610]

I like to go way up into His cathedral up on top of the mountain somewhere, there be alone, not hear the hums of airplane motors and so forth, but to hear the everlasting whisper of God's voice through the winds as it comes through the pines. That's God to me. Oh, there's something real about it.

PSALM 46:10a

10a. Be still, and know that I am God:

I KINGS 19:11b-12

11b. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

12. And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.

ISAIAH 6:8

8. Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

THE KEY TO THE DOOR [62-1007]

God's first nod to one of those prophets, nothing could stop them. He didn't have to do like He does to me some time, pound it over and over, and perhaps you (I hope not), but keep telling me, "Go do this," and then you'll stumble along, "Then go do this," and "Go back and do it again, you didn't do it right." Just one little nod! Just, they could just feel the Spirit tell them, "It's the thing to do," and nothing's going to stop them.

GO TELL [60-0417M]

I want to tell you a little something. Brother Ed Daulton, I believe he just come in the door, fine Baptist brother, him and his wife. Brother Jeffries is here somewhere. Othel Jeffries. And he's here, I know he is here somewhere. However, them brethren had formed a meeting for me to go to, down in Kentucky. Brethren, precious brothers, loving their neighborhood and their peoples. They got auditoriums and armory buildings and things, just for one night's service, they had rented armories. Little J. T. Hoover, ever what his...L. G. Hoover had formed, one down in Elizabethtown. And Brother Ed Daulton over at Willow Shade or – or Somerset, Somerset. And brother, the other brother was down around Glasgow, where I was born at. People in there where I was born and raised, where the Angel of the Lord first appeared to me.

And I wanted to go back. But I felt a little nudge. And I said, "Well, for the brethren's sake, I'll set the meeting." As soon as I arrived in this valley, my throat closed right up and I didn't speak for nine days, till the meetings passed by.

GO TELL [60-0417M]

You know, I'm so thankful for a God-given wife. Aren't you, brethren? A real wife, a real companion!

I set down. I motioned to her, and got her over close to me. And I said, "Meda, sometimes I wonder," I said, "I wonder, what's the matter." I said, "Why would them meetings be there, and God let me lay like this?" I said, "Why was it?" And I said, "Sometimes I wonder if He even called me."

She said, "Ain't you ashamed of yourself?" See? And she told me, said, "Bill, don't you know that God knows what He's doing with you? Just, just be quiet."

And so I went in. That kind of rebuked me a little, you know. And so I went in and laid down on the bed. She come in to change the sheets.

GO TELL [60-0417M]

I'm afraid of defeat. Anything, I'm afraid I'll bring a reproach. I'm always afraid of it, watching, think I'll call the wrong thing.

GO TELL [60-0417M]

And there He stood, talking to me. And He said, "But you walk with too many." He said, "To walk with Me, you'll walk alone."

I had seen that. I had been catering too much to denominations and everything, you see, somebody trying to tell you what to do and what not to do. You got to follow Him.

PRESUMING [62-0117]

I said to your pastor, up in his study this afternoon, "This is going to be one of the greatest meetings I ever seen, or either I missed the will of the Lord." I have never had Satan to fight me so hard as he did coming out here.

When Brother Williams invited me some time ago, I just kind of hesitated a little. I said, "I'll let you know a little later, because I believe in praying over things before we—we make our choice. Let it be God's choice."

PRESUMING [62-0117]

And so after waiting a few days, then I called him up. He said, "Oh, Brother Branham, all the brethren want you to come out." So I said... Just felt that little nudge I should do it, so I thought this would be a grand opportunity.

THE STATURE OF A PERFECT MAN [62-1014M]

Just as I said the other night. One little nod, that's all God had to do, then nothing going to stop them. They didn't question and study, and hum-haw and worry like we do, whether they should do this or that. They went ahead and done it, anyhow. Just one little nod from God, that done it, just as soon. Why? How could they know it was a nod from God? They had all these virtues in here, all these qualifications. And the first little nod of God compared with every bit of this, and with His Word. They knowed it was the Word of God, and away they went. Didn't have to worry about nothing else. When God spoke, they went. We speak...

God speaks to us, and we'll say, "Well, we'll start off. We'll see if we can live this Life." First thing you know, somebody upsets you. Well, sure, that's the devil.

You ought to seen him trying to keep me away from this meeting this morning. You ought to have that one time. Oh, mercy! I have to fight every time I mention a meeting. And if I'm going to pray for a sick, and somebody dying and not saved, there'll be thirty calls come in in ten minutes, if they can get that fast, to keep me from it. "Oh, Brother Branham, you got to do this." But there's a soul at stake.

JOHN 2:5b

5b. Whatever he saith unto you, do it.

A GUIDE [62-1014E]

If we'd just move and wait till the Spirit moved us to do it! That's it. And then be so completely lost in Christ that He don't have to shove you around like He does me, but the first little nod of His head, you're ready and nothing is going to stop you, because you know that it's the will of God.
